

King Collision staff obtain I-CAR Gold Class certification

March 26, 2010 12:00 AM

RAYNHAM, Mass. — King Collision Centers, providers of collision repair services, recently announced that the staff in their Raynham location has obtained the trusted I-CAR Gold Class certification. King Collision Centers is one of the only collision repair shops in Massachusetts with I-CAR certified staff. The certification is one of the highest levels obtainable within the Collision Repair Industry. In their commitment to excellence, King Collision invested $45,000 overall for staff training in I-CAR's latest collision repair technologies in order for employees to become certified. The certification is now required by a number of national insurance providers. King Collision Centers are located in Pembroke, Plymouth and Raynham.
